

THE CARPET BAGGER.

Alas—Joe Bonners.

I am a carpet-bagger—
I've a brother, sealawag—
Come South to board and swag—
With an empty carpet-bag;
To rob the whites of greenbacks,
And with the blacks to "swag,"
And change my empty satchel
For a full sole leather trunk.

I'm "some" on "constitutions,"
For a "late rebellious State,"
And I'm "some" on persecution
Of disloyal men I hate;
I'm "some" at nigger meetings,
When white folks ain't about,
And "some" among the nigger gals,
When their maids don't know they're out.

I'm "some" at a Convention,
Where I draw an "X" per day,
And opposed to all adjournments,
If I only draw my pay;
I drew it down at Jackson,
Where four months I kept my seat,
And laid a heavy tax on
All who wear, drink and eat.

But now my day is over,
The Constitution's killed;
Again I am a rover,
And my pockets are not filled;
All my money has been spent on
An electioneering "bum"—
Farewell to Mississippi—
Of "I wish I was for him!"

Dreadful Prophecies.

A formidable rival of Dr. Cumming has arisen in Australia, and has published a book containing the most dreadful prophecies, supported by incontrovertible passages of Scripture. His readers are informed that, contrary to common belief, the earth, instead of being orange-shaped, has the shape of a pine apple, and is elongated, instead of being flattened at the poles; that this elongation has got to such a pitch that the earth is about to change its center of gravity; Rome is to be suddenly overwhelmed, and seen no more forever; and the whole Northern hemisphere will share more or less in the tremendous disturbance. The dwellers on the north side of the equator are informed, however, that by emigrating immediately to Australia they may escape the threatened calamity, and, after it is over, return to enjoy the new earth, which is to be so pervaded with currents of magnetism and electricity that the soil will be fruitful beyond the power of the liveliest imagination to conceive, and man is to live as long as the oak of the forest. We doubt whether the terror of the impending catastrophe, or even the cheerful prospect held out to the survivors, will largely affect emigration to the antipodes this year. The expounder of this theory is, however, so dreadfully in earnest that he threatens to come out with another and bigger book next year, supported by more Scripture; from which we infer that the Northern hemisphere is in no immediate danger.

The Value of Cabbage.

The Southern Cultivator contains an article on the comparative value of various kinds of food, among other farm products, compliments cabbage thus:—"It has been chemically examined and has been found to be richer in red flesh forming matter than any crop we grow. It contains fibrine, or gluten, of which substance the muscles are made, and hence is richer in materials essential to the growth and strength of animal life. Wheat contains about 12 per cent, beans and peas about 25, and dried cabbage about 35 per cent, of this important material. It appears from careful analysis, that the young plant, before being headed, or out-side leaves of those that have formed solid heads, are much more valuable for feeding stock than the white centre of the full grown vegetable, and therefore the most desirable, for the table. From the fact that it is so rich in nitrogenous matter, it deserves more extensive cultivation. It stands a hard frost; is very productive for milking cows; it increases the flow of milk and its quality, and better made from it is free from unpleasant flavor."

An Alabama Orator.

Uncle Cameron, a "colored Democrat," recently told the niggers of Demopolis, Alabama, in a public speech that "he had rather be lathered with aquafortis and shaved with a hand saw, or live on pills hewed out with a broad axe, than to be left in the hands of such a set of sealawags." He is evidently a "powerful" orator.

The man who does not see in the present aspect of political affairs the complete overthrow of Radicalism in November, has studied the political history of the country to little effect.

Holden, of North Carolina, has gone a bow-shot beyond the sealawags in negro worship, but like the imported article, he takes care to cheat the negroes out of all offices that pay. He appoints them Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of towns or of charitable institutions—positions of "honour" in North Carolina, but not of "emolument." The Carpet-bagger gets the offices that pay.

There is an old woman in Pittsfield, Massachusetts, aged 90 years, who sews, knits and reads regularly without the aid of spectacles, and milks a cow twice a day. She says "the gals now days ain't worth."

There is a talking match between two women in Columbia, Pennsylvania. Betting is lively, and neither yet have the advantage. The umpire is already nearly as deaf as an adder, and it is doubtful whether the matter will ever be decided.

Several hundred citizens of Missouri have commenced suits against the State Treasury for the recovery of income tax levied on them two or three years ago by the State, claiming that the same was unconstitutional.

MARRIAGE GUIDE.

BEING A PRIVATE INSTRUCTOR FOR married persons or those about to be married, both male and female, in everything concerning the physiology and relations of our sexual system, and the production and prevention of offspring, including all the new discoveries never before given in the English language, by WM. YOUNG, M.D. This is really a valuable and interesting work. It is written in plain language for the general reader, and is illustrated with numerous Engravings. All young married people, or those contemplating marriage, and having the least impediment to married life, should read this book. It discloses secrets that every one should be acquainted with; still it is a book that must be locked up and not let about the house. It will be sent to any address on receipt of 50 cts. Address DR. W. M. YOUNG, No. 416 Spruce street, above Fourth, Philadelphia.

BE AFFLICTED AND UNFORTUNATE. No matter what may be your disease, before you place yourself under the care of any one of the notorious QUACKS—native and foreign—who advertise in this or any other paper, get a copy of Dr. Young's Book and read it carefully. It will beat down all quackery, and many a dollar, your health, and possibly your life. Dr. Young can be consulted on any of the diseases described in his publications, at his office, No. 416 Spruce street, above Fourth, Philadelphia.
